ANCESTRY OF ISAAC HORTON

I GENERATION.

BARNABAS HORTON, of Southold, L. I., was born in 1600, at Mowsley, Leicestershire, England, and died July 13, 1680, at Southold, Long Island. His wife, Mary, survived him. He emigrated to America prior to 1640, and settled at Hampton, New Hampshire. As early as 1651 he removed to Southold, and resided there until his death. He held many public offices and was one of the most prominent men of Southold. He was deputy to the General Court of the New Haven Colony in 1654, 1656, 1658, 1659 and 1661. In 1663 and 1664 he was a commissioner for Southold.

II GENERATION.

LIEUT. JOSEPH HORTON, of Rye, N.Y., eldest son of Barnabas Horton, was born about 1625 in England, and died before June 12, 1696. He married Jane Budd, daughter of Lieut. John Budd. Joseph Horton owned property in Southold in 1653. In 1665 he removed from Southold to Rye, Westchester Co., N. Y., at that time included in the Connecticut Colony. In 1667 he was appointed lieutenant. He was deputy from Rye to the Connecticut General Court in 1672, and was one of the commissioners to determine the boundary between New York and Connecticut in 1674. He was commissioner for Rye from 1680 to 1683.

III GENERATION.

CAPT. JOHN HORTON, of Rye, N. Y., son of Lieut. Joseph Horton, was born about 1655, and died between May 20 and Aug. 4, 1717. He married prior to Aug. 29, 1684, Rachel Hoit, daughter of John Hoit, of Rye. John Horton was appointed lieutenant for the town of Rye in 1697, and was later made captain. In 1699 he was deputy to the Connecticut General Court.

IV GENERATION.

DANIEL HORTON, of Cortlandt Manor,
N. Y.,

son of Capt. John Horton, was born April 23, 1696, and died Dec. 10, 1777. He married Esther Lane, who was born May 24, 1704, and died April 18, 1769. He removed from Rye to Cortlandt Manor about 1739 and lived there the rest of his life. He held no public offices.

V GENERATION.

JUDGE WILLIAM HORTON, of Colchester, N. Y.,

son of Daniel Horton, was born Jan. 10, 1743, and died April 4, 1831, at Colchester, N. Y. He married Elizabeth Covert, daughter of Elisha Covert, of Cortlandt Manor, N. Y. She was born Jan. 4, 1743, and died June 24, 1831. About 1793 William Horton left Cortlandt Manor and settled at Colchester, Delaware Co., N. Y. In 1794 he was elected commissioner of highways. During the years 1797-1801 he was one of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of Delaware Co. In 1798 he represented the county in the Legislature of the State.

VI GENERATION.

ISAAC HORTON, of Liberty, N. Y., son of William and Elizabeth (Covert) Horton, was born April 13, 1780, at Somers, N. Y., and died May 10, 1855, at Liberty, N. Y. He married Jan. 1, 1807, Prudence Knapp, daughter of Enoch and Esther (Wright) Knapp. Prudence (Knapp) Horton was born June 20, 1787, at Yorktown, N. Y., and died Aug. 31, 1880, at Middletown, N. Y. Isaac Horton held various town offices in Colchester from 1804 to 1823. In 1826 he removed from there to Liberty, N. Y., where he spent the rest of his life.

ANCESTRY OF ISAAC HORTON

I Generation

BARNABAS HORTON, of Southold, L. I., was born in 1600, at Mowsley, Leicestershire, England, and died July 13, 1680, at Southold, Long Island. He married in 1622, Ann Smith, of Stanion, Northamptonshire, England. She was the mother of Joseph Horton, and probably died before the family came to America. Barnabas Horton married (2) Mary ———, who survived him. He emigrated to America prior to 1640, and settled at Hampton, New Hampshire. As early as 1651 he removed to Southold, and resided there until his death. He held many public offices and was one of the prominent men of Southold. He was deputy to the General Court of the New Haven Colony in 1654, 1656, 1658, 1659 and 1661. In 1663 and 1664 he was a commissioner for Southold.

II Generation

LIEUT. JOSEPH HORTON, of Rye, N. Y., eldest son of Barnabas Horton, was born about 1625 in England, and died before June 12, 1696.

ANCESTRY OF ISAAC HORTON

He married Jane Budd, daughter of Lieut. John Budd. Joseph Horton owned property in Southold in 1653. In 1665, he removed from Southold to Rye, Westchester Co., N. Y., at that time included in the Connecticut Colony. In 1667 he was appointed lieutenant. He was deputy from Rye to the Connecticut General Court in 1672, and was one of the commissioners to determine the boundary between New York and Connecticut in 1674. He was commissioner for Rye from 1680 to 1683.

III Generation

CAPT. JOHN HORTON, of Rye, N. Y., son of Lieut. Joseph Horton, was born about 1655, and died between May 20 and Aug. 4, 1717. He married prior to Aug. 29, 1684, Rachel Hoit, daughter of John Hoit, of Rye. John Horton was appointed lieutenant for the town of Rye in 1697, and was later made captain. In 1699 he was deputy to the Connecticut General Court.

IV Generation

DANIEL HORTON of Cortlandt Manor, N. Y., son of Capt. John Horton, was born April 23, 1692, and died Dec. 10, 1777. He married Hester Lane, who was born May 24, 1704, and died April 18, 1769. He removed from Rye to Cortlandt Manor about 1739 and resided there until his death. He held no public offices.

HORTON FAMILY YEAR BOOK

V Generation

JUDGE WILLIAM HORTON, of Colchester, N. Y., son of Daniel Horton, was born Jan. 10, 1743 and died April 4, 1831, at Colchester, N. Y. He married Elizabeth Covert, daughter of Elisha Covert, of Cortlandt Manor, N. Y. She was born Jan. 4, 1743, and died June 24, 1831. About 1793 William Horton removed from Cortlandt Manor and settled at Colchester, Delaware Co., N. Y. In 1794 he was elected commissioner of highways. During the years 1797-1801 he was one of the judges of the Court of Common Pleas of Delaware Co. In 1798 he represented the county in the Legislature of the State.
